EBSCOhost is a multi-disciplinary database containing full-text for more than 8,500 publications in a user-friendly format with many helpful special features.
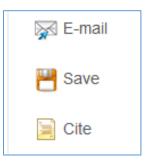

Advanced Search

The Advanced Search bar allows you to add multiple subject terms and to filter your search terms by the following:

- Full text: article results will be full text and will not include abstracts.
- Year: enter a range such as "2014-2024"
- Peer reviewed: results will be scholarly resources only. Eliminating video, magazine, and newspaper article results.

Tool Bar

Save, cite and share the article for your bibliography page.

- E-mail: send yourself a citation and link to article
- Save: download the article in PDF format
- Cite: choose citation formats such as APA, MLA, etc.

Subject Terms

Use the subject terms search bar to find a list of related terms associated with your topic. For example, browsing "car" leads to the following terms:

- Traffic accidents
- Automobile
